

The objective of this research is to propose a study of the linguistic modality and, correlatively, the mediative category in XIX century periodic publications (1808 - 1821). We intend to identify and to describe the linguistic resources which aim at the construction of the information. These resources include inferential procedures and the construction of diversified enunciative sources.